PLANT SOLD.

The printing plant of the New Era Company was sold Tuesday by Geo.
S. Dial, trustee in bankruptcy, to S.
Rosenthal company of Cincinnati for $9,100. The appraisement of the plant was $22,000.41, with a mortgage of $5,352.75 held by E. L. Barber. The plant is located in Cedarville, Ohio. The New Era Company was organized in 1890. Its capital stock of $100,000 has reached $175,000 of which $90,000 is in gold bonds bearing seven per cent interest.
A report the day of the sale was that the bond holders would not realize anything and that after the assessment of the stockholders for twice the amount of their stock the creditors will not realize five cents on the dollar. The outcome is being watched with considerable interest as a number of local capitalists have stock in the company or hold bonds.

COUNCIL MEETING.

The regular meeting of council was held Monday night all members being present. Owing to the absence of the clerk member Gillough was chosen to look after these duties. The electric light ordinance which had had two readings was laid on the table. Bills to the amount of $273.93 were ordered paid. Mayor McFarland's receipts were $27.05.

The resignations of J. G. McCorkell as clerk and Robert Ford as street commissioner were read and accepted.
Mr. S. C. Wright was appointed by the mayor to fill the unexpired term.

As the street commissioner has been working under an ordinance and that the old one is invalid by the use of new code, member Bull was appointed to have another drawn. Also to see as to the re-codification of the present ordinances. No appointment for street commissioner will be made until an ordinance is passed.

Council adjourned until tonight.

TEACHERS RE-ELECTED.

At a meeting of the school board last Friday evening the present corps of teachers were re-elected. John Ross, transient officer and janitor, was also retained. The board adopted a new course of study, outlined by Prof. Randall. The course was submitted to the state school commissioner and with some extra apparatus and some additional volumes in the library our schools will then be rated as first class. They have been second for several years and Prof. Randall is putting forth every effort to have them at the top of the list along with schools in larger cities.

From all indications Cedarville is to have a track for driving this summer. The Cedarville Driving Club club having been refused the Jackson track by the owner, has started to work on the Bridgman field. Mr.
Jackson and his friends, not to be outdone, are working their track south of town.

Mr. W. L. Clemons is soliciting stock for the Greene County Oil and Gas Co. He already has leased about 5000 acres in one square and raised about $2500 worth of stock. The first well will be drilled on the Clemons farm in the south-eastern part of the township.

The Massies Creek Cemetery Association has purchased a plot of ground lying north of their present holdings. It is known as the Paris place, contains 18 acres and is owned by Alex. Crawford. The final decision is placed at $900. The house will be retained as a residence for a season.

The entertainment at the opera house Tuesday night, under the direction of the senior class of the college and given by Prof. Frank S.
Fox, of the Capital School of Oratory of Columbus, was probably the best kind ever given before a local audience. Prof. Fox is a capable entertainer, his entire program consisting of selections that were pleasing to his audience.

GREENE COUNTY POLITICAL NEWS.

The Congressional Situation to be Cleared Away May 19.
An Eruption in the Gang.

The Sixth District Congressional mix-up will be settled soon as Mr. R.
I. Stewart will call the chairmen of the various boards for the purpose of hearing the arguments as to who is the rightful candidate, Judge Scroggy or Hon. C. Q. Hildebrandt. They will take no verbal testimony, each of the candidates will present six affidavits from each of the six counties in the district. Beside the thirty-six affidavits each candidate may submit written briefs summing up the testimony in the affidavits. Judge Scroggy will be represented by Attorneys Darlington, Snodgrass, Gowdy and possibly one or two others. Mr.
Hildebrandt will also have counsel.

Within the past two or three weeks there has been considerable stir in Greene county politics. The crowd that has been organized as the "gang" and for two or three years has politically plundered the county, is at the present time in the greatest turmoil.
These hoodlums, toppers and gamblers have for several years robbed the voters of this county of everything that was of any value and not being able to apply their nefarious methods any longer have started in to "do amongst themselves" they have done others. The fight broke out a few weeks ago when Andrew Jackson was chosen chairman of the County Central Committee. The gang was divided, some wanted Buckley others Jackson. Some said that "Sir William" would not do "Boss" Schmidt's bidding, consequently he must be defeated. Others said Jackson would be just the man for the corrupt Outrigger and that his rulings as chairman would be in keeping with the work of the "gang" and he must be elected. At this meeting the hottest of oaths were passed between the different factions one side charging the other with purchasing proxies and even promising anything wanted. This was indeed a very strange incident to think that charges and counter charges would be placed against men of apparently equal standing. The defeated side now hollows on the chairman, says that he was once an influential Republican but of late his conduct has been such that he is no longer the man to head any party. The Xenia and Wilmington escapees have for some reason or another had a wonderful influence on the ex-members of the "gang." The situation is particularly amusing to outsiders and to the Herald as we have for some time been exposing the work of this organization.
The thing to do at present is to "let 'em fight it out."

Never since the "gang" began to inflict their work on the tax payers and voters of the county has this organization been the subject of such caustic criticism as when Mr. Jackson was made chairman. With newspapers both city and county over the state, cutting right and left over the O. S. & S. O. Home lark he was thrust upon the Republican party by this domineering "gang." Probably no Greene county politician has been before the public for ridicule as has the chairman of the county central committee. The Springfield Blade says, "It is not likely there will be any Republican political meetings held in Springfield this year. Of course the Hon. (God save the mark) Andy Jackson as county leader would naturally have to be present at any such meeting and its a little to much to expect us to keep all our pretty school teachers locked up while he is in town for fear of his giving an exhibition of a legislative orgy as exemplified lately at the O. S. & S. O.
Home.

With equal expenditure the newspapers advertised in the newspapers outstripped the other in sales by $60,000 copies.

The result was a complete surprise and established the fact that readers go to the newspapers for information with regard to books as well as with regard to most other matters.—National Printer-Journalist.

DROWNED HER BABY.

Xenia has had quite a sensation during the past week in that a girl 23 years, old, Miss Kate Sanders, drowned her three weeks old baby boy in a half beer keg of water at the Zoo in Cincinnati last Saturday. The mother after committing the deed then left for her home in Kentucky. Two years ago she came to Xenia and was clerked for J. A. Stillings a grocer, and it is he that she now charges as author of her trouble. The girl is at present under arrest at a Cincinnati hospital and will be tried as soon as she recovers from her nervousness.
Her only reason for committing the terrible crime was that she was despondent and that she feared to face her mother in her trouble. She was sent home on $15 given her by Stillings. According to another sister in Xenia, Mrs. Carrie Ellis, a heavy suit will be brought against Stillings for having wronged the girl.

WHY DISCRIMINATE?

Some of our newspapers in the county that have always held out that it was better to strew pathways with flowers and always show up the bright side of life, have certainly deviated since the Sanders-Stillings case has come to light. They have always argued this was the better course, anything else would bring sorrow into some home, and rather than give it to the public in a true report the matter should be smothered. Within the past few days one of these papers has had great scare, heads telling in the most sensational manner the unfortunate downfall of a young girl. Was it because she was a stranger out on the world, away from home and from a mother's influence that she is taken advantage of? As for the man himself he is able to battle the cares of life without assistance but it certainly appears inconsistent in a newspaper that claims such a motto as the above to assist in spreading such news against an innocent young girl.

That such a lark as took place recently at the O. S. & S. O. Home could escape the notice of these papers is more than we can understand.
When it comes to men in public office becoming drunken sots and carousing through the sleeping rooms of lady teachers all the time using the most vile language, and a newspaper attempting to cover up such acts, these papers are not doing these men are holding office through political influence, is it fair that newspapers should shield them and at the same time take advantage of a misguided girl as was the case the past few days. Why make fish of one and flesh of the other?

Lady Bells, the highest priced horse sold at the Bryson sale, and raised by Mr. M. W. Collins, ran off last week at Jamestown where the animal was been tracked. She injured her shoulder on a fence.

Mr. Harry Whittington, engaged in the grocery business in Cedarville, together with his wife, was enjoying a visit at the home of her father, Mr.
John Hickman, of the Whitechapel neighborhood, south of Xenia, when their two months old child was taken ill and died Monday morning. Another child is also very ill. The funeral services will be at the home of Mr. Hickman on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Hershely. Burial at Woodland.—Gazette.

CREAMERY IS ROBBED.

About 80 Pounds of the First Butter made is Hauled Away Monday Night.

The creamery operated in the old cheese factory by Mr. Marion Townsley was plundered some time Monday night by robbers. The entire first lot of butter consisting of about 80 pounds all ready for shipment was taken. The lock on the door had been opened by the use of a key and an effort was made to lock it again after the goods had been taken out.
The tracks show that the vehicle used was a rubber tire buggy and that it was driven north on the Columbus pike. The track of the horse was a peculiar one and Tuesday Mr. Townsley made the rounds of the livery stables in Springfield. He found a stable that had had a horse out until about 2 o'clock. A shoe was taken off and brought here it fitting exactly in the track. Mr. Townsley has the names of the parties that had the rig and it is his belief that they are the guilty ones. One of the men is a bitter enemy of his, he having had some trouble months ago. At this time no trace of the butter has been found.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED

persons were indicted, two cases tenced four prisoners, all of them colored, 2 years each for stealing $44;

Pan-Handle car, one year John Davis expiration of this sentence he will be

MISS HANNAH McCOLLUM.

Miss Hannah McCollum died Monday evening after a long illness, being a sufferer from a cancer. Her death was hastened by a paralytic stroke. She lived on the home place with her two brothers, Joseph and John, a sister, Miss Tillie. Mrs. James Gregg is another sister.

The following obituary was read by Rev. McChesney:

Miss Hannah McCollum was born in county Antrim, Ireland, June 6, 1837 and departed this life May 9, 1904, aged 66 years, 11 months and 3 days. She was the oldest of ten children, four of whom are still living. She came with her parent to United States in 1855 and settled near Cedarville, near which she has had her home ever since. Early in life she united with the Reformed Presbyterian church under the pastoral care of Rev. Hugh McMillan, D. D. Of this congregation she was a faithful and consistent member throughout life. For years she was a quiet patient sufferer, and during the last year and a half she passed through fires of affliction. A dread and incurable disease was aided in its certain and speedy work of dissolution by a recent paralytic stroke, after which she was almost totally helpless.

In all her sickness, her faith in Christ remained simple and firm. She was prepared for her trials and death by a life of devotion to the church and its missionary efforts, by an unwavering, humble trust in Christ, and by a sincere belief in the word of promise and consolation. She was of a meek and retiring disposition. She was kind and considerate. She was a thoroughly true friend. She will be missed in the home, where she proved a most devoted sister and help. She will be missed in the church, whose ordinances she loved and frequented.
One by one our friends so kind, so true are gathering home, home to the mansions of bliss. Our numbers here are growing less, while yonder the throne arrayed in white is ever increasing. Soon will our summons come. In that hour may we be ready to lay aside the earthly robes for the garb of celestial glory.

The funeral services took place Wednesday forenoon, conducted by Revs. Henry and McChesney, assisted by Rev. Sanderson. Burial in Massies' creek cemetery.

Your Heart.

When Your Heart Fails to Pump Your Blood, Trouble
Results.

Have you heart trouble?
You have, if you find it hard to breathe after walking up stairs, exercising, etc. If you have pain in your left side, in chest, back or shoulder. If you suffer from cold extremities, pale face, blue lips, dry cough, swollen ankles.
If you have fainting spells, breast pain, palpitation, redness of the face, discomfort in sleeping on one side.
The only scientific treatment for this whole train of troubles is Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.
Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is the prescription of a famous specialist, whose great success in treating obstinate nervous heart disease has made his name pre-eminent in the medical and scientific world.
The medicine will cure you. We know it. We want you to prove it. If first bottle does not benefit, your druggist will give you back your money.
It has cured several years' suffering at times with heart trouble. I got so bad I could not sleep half the night, and had to sit up on the side of the bed lots of times to get breath. Three of my brothers have died of heart trouble, and I thought I was going the same way, but about two and a half years ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and thought I would try a few bottles. After using them, I recovered, and have had better health since then than before for several years. I can heartily recommend them for heart trouble. —RAY, JERRY HURT, Pastor Temple Church, West-Union, Iowa.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times waking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain-Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain-Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Isaac Wiseman.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year I tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It is infallible for cough, whooping cough, grip, pneumonia and consumption. Dry it. It is guaranteed by all druggists. ## Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Isaac Wiseman.

FRIDAY, MAY 13 1904.

If the torpedo proves to be the coming naval weapon of warfare, as some experts anticipate, England and her big fleet may be injured under the fifth rib. It will be remarkable if all the big war ships are to turn turtle and become obsolete.

From the 5 to the 10 of September the International Arbitration conference will be held in St. Louis. The American committee has the neat little sum of $50,000 with which to entertain the American delegates and pay for their transportation. To show them how anxious we are for universal peace it is proposed to have a battle ship in New York harbor to welcome those from Europe. Later on they will be carried to Washington to shake hands with the President.

There was a time when Russia thought that to fight the Japanese would be like snuffing out a candle. Now they announce that the Japs are too alert; that they attack in the night; that their guns have enormous range; and that they have a host of infernal inventions which the rest of the world does not possess.

In the house of representatives there 206 republicans and 177 democrats. A net change in 15 districts would give the democrats control of the house, provided it was the right kind of a change. But "safe and sane" as the democrats think they are, it cannot be done.

A Greenland Gown.

Not infrequently a semisavage girl has a wardrobe consisting of furs which would be worth from $5,000 to $10,000. Grundenman, the explorer, relates how one fair Greenland woman wore a dress of seal skin with a hood of that costly fur, the silver fox. The garment was lined with fur of the young seal otter, and there was a fringe of walrusen tails. About $700 is probably the average worth of the dress of Indian women on the Columbia and Fraser rivers.

Rifle Ball Penetration.

Tests as to penetration of the present rifle bullets in sand, loam and steel show the penetration into sand and loam at fifty feet does not exceed six inches; at 600 yards thirteen and a half inches and at 1,000 yards sixteen and a half inches. At fifty feet the velocity is so high that the bullets are completely flattened in the first six inches; the sand not having time to yield.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of doing anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You can get this reliable remedy at all druggists. Price 25c and 75c.

BAD BLOOD

"I had trouble with my bowels which made my blood impure. My face was covered with pimples, which no external remedy could remove. I tried Dr. King's Black-Draught and after a few bottles the pimples disappeared after a month's steady use. I have recovered and feel like a new man. I can heartily recommend it to all who have trouble with their bowels." —W. J. Smith, New York City, N. Y.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

The Result of Sam's Foolish Mistake in Hitting Back.

District Attorney John C. Bell of Philadelphia, who recently returned from the south, tells the following story:

An old white headed negro named Moses was one day walking along the road when he saw young Sam sitting on the fence, grumbling to himself and looking very sullen.

"What's de matter wid yuh, Sam?" asked the old dandy. "What foh all dis yere blackness?"

"Oh, it's all dat Mars' Fairfax," was the reply. "Ah can't get along wid him now. Ah guess Ah'm gwine to leah him. He cusses me an' beats me all de time."

"Look a-hyuh, Sam, why doan yuh 'sert yuh 'dependence once in aw'ile? Dat's de way ter do. Wen Mars' Fairfax cusses yuh, yuh cuss him back."

A few days later old Moses came along the road once more and saw young Sam sitting on the fence again, this time with his face all disfigured as if he had been in a fight and bruised up generally.

"What's de trouble now?" asked the old man. "Pears like yuh done gone an' ran inter one of dem steam engines."

"It's all yuh fault, Uncle Mose. Ah done taken yuh advice. Ah went out in de fiel' de adder day, an' Mars' Fairfax he come along, an' he cuss me. Den Ah ups an' Ah cusses him back."

"Foh de lan's sake, man," said old Mose, rolling his eyes, "yuh didn't let him hear yuh, did yuh?"

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz., one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 3 1/2 pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 ozs." Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

A SUNDAY RIDE.

Result, Won to the Outfit and a Quaint Verdict From a Jury.

"Shortly after I began the practice of law," said Colonel Ingersoll, "I had occasion to make a western trip and incidentally to look up some records in the country offices of a certain town."

"When my research was finished I had some hours of leisure on my hands and naturally drifted into the courtroom, where a case was being tried."

"It was a damage suit for a wrecked buggy and foundered horse. It appeared that the defendant, a young man of about twenty-one, had taken his best girl out riding on a Sunday afternoon. They came home, the girl on horseback, the fellow leading a disheveled beast considerably the worse for wear."

"The girl was in court, but in a bad temper, and was the most reluctant witness I ever saw. It took some time to get the facts from the young man. It seemed that, being a very warm day, the horse wanted a drink, and as there was a track through a stream where the animal was accustomed to go he took the bit in his teeth, waded in knee deep and stopped."

"The checkrein had not been let down, and the horse couldn't get his head free to drink. Not being familiar with such gear, the pair did not know what to do. Finally the youth leaned over the dashboard and unbuckled the crupper."

"That didn't work, so he got out and, securing a rail that lay by the roadside, placed one end under the rear axle and tried to lift the hind end of the buggy so that the horse could get his nose to the water."

"The buggy lurched, the horse was frightened, began to pay and back, broke and overturned the vehicle and spilled the girl into the stream. The fellow dropped the rail, leaped into the water and caught the bundle of muslin and saved her, but, oh, so wet and bedraggled!"

"The young man and the girl blamed the horse, and the jury after mature deliberation brought in a verdict against the plaintiff on the ground that a man who would let a turn-out to an idiot must expect to take the consequences."

What Treasure Is in England.

Treasure trove, according to the authorities on English common law—that is, money, coin, gold and silver plate or bullion—all belong to the crown. Only gold and silver are treasure, so that if one finds antique bronzes, an old Roman sword or Celtic battle-axe or any trifle of that nature he may keep it without fear of incurring the penalties attached to concealment of treasure. And such penalties are still in existence. Formerly the punishment was no less than death, now it is only fine and imprisonment, although it may be doubted whether any jury could be found to convict of such an offense, which most people would confess to be capable of themselves committing should the occasion happily arise.—All the Year Round.

Couldn't Sing "H."

The young English tenor had been asked to favor the company interpretation of "Hanny Be Thy Dreams," in which the singer's antipathy to the letter H was painfully manifest.

"I say, young man," said a blunt old chap after the singer had finished, "you didn't sound a single H, and the song is full of 'em." "I beg your pardon, sir," replied the young man, with freezing dignity; "you are mistaken. The notes on the pianer don't go any higher than G."

Paternal Advice.

Medical Student—I think, father, when I have graduated I will become a specialist.

Father—What sort of specialist? "I think I will make a specialty of ear diseases."

"I think you had better become a tooth specialist. Man has only two ears, but he has thirty-two teeth that are always more or less out of order."—London Tit-Bits.

Lucky.

"You don't mean to say he has paid you in advance for the full course of singing lessons?" said the first vocal instructor.

"Yes," replied the other gleefully, "because of a lucky misunderstanding. I said to him, 'You doubtless know our first lesson begins with "do."'" He immediately apologized and produced the dough."—Philadelphia Press.

His Limit.

Bill—You say you swallowed a cent?

Jill—That's what I did.

"And the doctor made you cough it up?"

"He did."

"And then he wanted you to cough up a dollar, I suppose?"

"Yep, he did, but I couldn't cough up another cent."—Yonkers Statesman.

Is Fruit Wanted?

If you care to have perfect fruit and plenty of it you will have to spray your trees and bushes. All that has been said in favor of spraying is founded on scientific experiments. All that has been said against it has been founded on partial or careless application of materials, or the use of mistaken methods.

The instructions sent out by the various state experiment stations can be relied on.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Johnny Knew More About Coasting Than Spelling.

The following essay on the subject of "Coasting" was written by an energetic Ohio boy, who evidently loves winter sports, says the Cincinnati Enquirer:

"I think it is dandy fun dont you? My sled is a nice riding one and I have a nice pair of skis, and I can skate good, but I can't skate very good but I can skate better than sum peple."

"And there is sum peple can skate better than sum peple, dont you think so, I do?"

"I like to cost dont you and I like to see other peple cost, dont you?"

"And I like to to hit bumps when I play ride and were I play ride there is 5 or 6 bumps and were you hit one bump and it wont take you very long till you hit nother bump and I think it is just fun, dont you and I like to play ride dont you, and there are plenty of places to play ride that sum peple never seen dont you think so I do?"

The Eskimo Dog. "The dog is the only domestic animal the Eskimo has," says Lieutenant Perry, "but he manages to make about as much use of it as we do of several different beasts. It takes the place of a horse, dragging him and his family long distances over the frozen stretches. It guides him with unerring scent to the tiny opening in the snow which marks the breathing hole of the hidden seal. It rounds up bear and musk ox for the master to kill, and often enough when the hand of hunger grips the little snow ball settlement it yields up its life to feed the family it has served so faithfully and its coat to keep them warm."

THE UNIVERSAL EXPOSITION

The Achievements of Individuals and Nations Faithfully Recorded by This Encyclopedia of Society.

By FREDERICK J. V. SKIFF, Director of Exhibits, World's Fair.

"The wisdom of all ages is none too great for the world's work." In this single sentence, uttered in his famous address at Buffalo in September, 1901, President McKinley described the object and the result of expositions.

A modern universal exposition is a collection of the wisdom and achievements of the world, for the inspection of the world, for the study of its progress, by which they may make comparisons and deduction and develop plans for future improvements and progress. Such a universal exposition might well be called an encyclopedia of society. It constitutes a classified, compact, indexed compendium of the achievements and ideas of society in all phases of its activity, extending to the most material as well as the most refined. It offers illustrations covering the full field of social performance, from the production of the shoes on our feet and the pavement beneath them to a presentation of the rarest and most delicate creations of the brain and hands of men in what are called the fine arts of civilization.

The Universal Exposition in St. Louis in 1904 will be such a social encyclopedia in the most comprehensive and accurate sense. It will give to the world in revised and complete details "a living picture of the artistic and industrial development at which mankind has arrived" and will actually provide "a new starting point from which all men may direct future exertions." It will present for the inspection of specialists in all lines of industry and social endeavor, and for the public an assembly of the best which the world has done and has to show in industry, art and science, and what is very important, it will offer these achievements of society, these trophies of civilization, in a highly selected, accurately classified array.

The creators of the St. Louis Exposition have had the experience of all past expositions by which to plan and effect its high organization. The continuous and repeated burden of the message of experience handed down by all expositions has been more perfect, more effective classification and arrangement of exhibits.

The classification of the St. Louis Exposition has been prepared to present a sequential synopsis of the progress of the human race, from the beginning of time to the present. On the bases will be assembled the most highly organized exposition the world has yet seen.

The St. Louis classification is divided into 10 departments, 144 groups and 807 classes. These grand departments in their order will record what man has accomplished at this time with his faculties, industry and skill and the natural resources at his command in the environment in which he has been placed.

At the head of the Exposition classification has been placed Education, through which man enters social life. Second comes Art, showing the condition of his culture and development. Liberal Arts and Applied Sciences are placed third, to indicate the result of his education and culture, illustrate his tastes and demonstrate his inventive genius, scientific attainment and artistic expression. These three departments equip him for the battle and prepare him for the enjoyment of life. The raw material departments, Agriculture, Horticulture, Mining and Forestry, show how man conserves the forces of nature to his uses. The Department of Manufactures will show what he has done with them; the Department of Machinery the tools he has used. The Department of Transportation will show how he overcomes distances and secures access to all parts of the world. The Department of Electricity will indicate the great forces he has discovered and utilized to convey power and intelligence. And so through the several departments to Anthropology, in which man studies many and to Social Economy, which will illustrate the development of the human race, how it has overcome the difficulties of civilization and solved problems in which society is involved.

Last is placed physical culture, in which man, his intelligence having reached the supreme point, is able to treat himself as an animal, realizing that his intellectual and moral constitutions require a sound physical body to prompt them to the proper performance of their function.

Education is the keynote of the Universal Exposition of 1904. Each department of the world's labor and development will be represented at St. Louis, classified and installed in such manner that all engaged or interested in such branch of activity may come and see, examine, study and go away advised. Each of the separate sections of the Exposition will be an equivalent of, or rather, will be in actuality a comprehensive and most effective object lesson in the line of industrial and social achievement and progress which it presents.

TOLEDO BLADES.

They Are Still Made, but Are Much Inferior to Ancient Work.

Toledo blades are still made in the government weapon factory, but those of modern production do not compare with the ancient work. It seems to be a lost art. The genuine Toledo blades, made by the Moors, were so elastic and tough that they could be curled up like a watch spring. You can see them in the armory at Madrid, but only ordinary swords and bayonets for the army are made there today. The secret seems to have been forgotten. The steel came from England. It is the same as is used for ordinary purposes; and, as in Japan, where the art reached an equal degree of superiority, the difference in the product lay in the skill of the armorer and the process he used.

In the secondhand shops of Toledo and of the bric-a-brac dealers you can buy old swords for reasonable prices, but genuine ones, made before the sixteenth century, when the best were produced and the art began to decline, are very rare and are promptly picked up by connoisseurs whenever they are offered. The names of the old makers are as well known as those of the painters of great pictures, and a sword made by Nicholas or Dume or Don Iso or Corrientes in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries is worth several times its weight in gold.

Each armorer of Toledo in ancient times, as in Japan, had his cipher, which is to be found on his blades, and there was as much rivalry among them as there is today among the opera singers. Julian del Rei, the most famous of the Moorish sword makers, always cut the figure of a dog on the blades of his swords near the hilt, and Morille, who was also famous, used a wolf for his coat of arms. The sword makers of Toledo had a guild for mutual protection, but they worked separately. Each had his own secrets for refining and tempering the steel.

From his rivals he transmitted to his children, who inherited the business.—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Studio Conversation.

A lady visited a painter's studio one day and was gushingly enthusiastic over everything he displayed for her delectation. To the artist's great disappointment, however, she did not exhibit any signs of purchasing any of his work.

"How interesting your work must be!" exclaimed the lady, her eyes bright with animation. "How very interesting! I suppose, now, that when one has spent many hours of patient but loving toil upon a painting it becomes very dear to one—so dear, I presume, that one grows to love it. It must therefore be very hard to part with it."

"Hard to part with it?" echoed the luckless artist. "A great deal worse than that, madam; sometimes it's impossible!"

The Dead Sure-Critics.

"I'll bet," said the playwright, "if we could find an unpublished play of Shakespeare's and produce it the critics would roast the show just the same."

"Of course," replied the manager, "and they'd prove their case too."

"How could they do that?" asked the playwright. "We'd surely have the laugh on them when the facts were known."

"I guess you don't know the critics," returned the manager. "They might roast the play first, but when they found it was a Shakespeare piece they'd simply say that the acting had so ruined it that it was beyond recognition. Oh, they'll get us going or coming. We can't get away from it."—Chicago Post.

Courage of Cincinnati.

The late George Francis Train loved children. The children of New York will miss him from Madison square, where in fine weather he would play with them all day long.

"Citizen" Train used to tell of a little girl to whom he once gave a rich cake. She ate it and asked for another.

"I'd like to give you another," said the old man, "but it would make you sick."

"Give it to me anyway," said the little girl. "At the dispensary I can get medicine for nothing."
